School Services

Supporting literacy... we're in it together

Class visits

We are happy to welcome visits from classes and daycares! Your visit can be combined with a tour of the John M. Parrott Art Gallery.

During your visit we can offer:

- Storytime with crafts and activities
- Tour of the Children's Area
- Book talks
- Promotion of library resources
- Time to browse
- Demonstration of our online catalogue

Classes are welcome to bring their own lunch or snack.

Bookings should be made 2 weeks in advance by phone or online. Please contact us if you need to cancel your visit so that we can accommodate another class.

Student Library Cards

Your students can get their library cards on the day of their visit if you pick up a registration package and return the completed forms to the Children's and Youth Services Desk.

The library needs 5 working days to process the forms before the visit.

The forms are also available online.

Please visit the Kids' Page on the www.bellevillelibrary.ca to fill in an online class visit booking form or find printable student library card registration forms.

Our Resources

On your library visit your class can explore our wonderful resources including:

- Picture books and chapter books
- Materials for emergent readers
- Graphic novels for all reading levels
- An extensive nonfiction collection
- Our multilingual collection
- Audio Books & DVDs

Our e-Resources

On your visit we would be happy to demonstrate the use of our electronic resources so that your students can access them via www.bellevillelibrary.ca with their library cards.

Book Bundle

As a complement to your school library we can offer our Book Bundle service giving you access to our resources to support classroom learning.

You can submit details of the subject area or author of interest and the age/reading level of your students. We will prepare a package of materials for you to collect at your convenience.

A great service for busy teachers

We require 5 working days notice for this service. There is a limit of 12 books per bundle and 2 bundles per teacher at one time. The material is for classroom use only. You can register for the service at the Children's and Youth Services Desk or email your enquiries to jvanmanen@bellevillelibrary.ca.

Please visit the Kids' Page on the www.bellevillelibrary.ca to find printable Book Bundle registration forms.
